P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the creativity and intellectual self-reliance of every individual as well as his vocational competence are developed by education; and

WHEREAS, one person in four is currently engaged in pursuing an education, whether preschool, elementary, secondary, higher, adult, or vocational; and

WHEREAS, the rapid rate of scientific discovery is radically decreasing the number of jobs available to the undereducated and increasing the necessity for all workers to be capable of continuously re-educating themselves; and

WHEREAS, the teachers of the nation are thus in a position of high responsibility for the public and personal welfare of the nation and its citizens,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, declare April 1965 as in order to recognize the importance of the task accomplished by the teachers of this country, to elicit the public support necessary to encourage them to continue in this task, and to encourage young people of ability to consider teaching as a career.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of South Dakota to be affixed on this 25th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.

Nils A. Boe
